

Module - 6

[API Authentication & security]

Q-1 what is middleware in express.js?

- Ans A set of function that execute during the processing of HTTP requests received by an Express application.
- Middleware function access the HTTP request and response objects.
  - They either terminate the HTTP request or forward it for further processing to another middleware function.

Q-2 what is JSON web tokens?

- Ans A JSON web Token, popularly known as JWT, is an open standard that defines a compact way for securely sharing information between two parties: a client and a server.